OLD-TIMERS BANQUET AT NIGHTINGALE VERY SUCCESSFUL

On Friday last the Nightingale Branch of the Women's Institute sponsored an old timers night, auction sale and dance in aid of the Red Cross Society.

Never before has such a crowd gathered at the Hall. Old timers and young timers were there from all over the surrounding countryside.

A bountiful supper was provided by the women of the community and full justice was done to it, as chicken and potatoes, salad and pie, vanished in short order.

After supper Mr Mercer, who acted as chairman, proposed the toast to His Majesty the King, which was responded to as only a loyal people know how.

The address of welcome was given by the president of the W. I.

Mrs Gilbert Patrick, president of the Strathmore Branch of the Red Cross, gave a brief talk stressing the urgent need for funds, and showed a sample parcel for prisoners of war, 20,000 of which are dispatched overseas each week.

Mr Thomas Wright, an early resident of Strathmore proposed the toast to the old-timers of Nightingale. He mentioned some of the families who came out from England when the colony was settled, and paid tribute to the ranchers who were the real pioneers. Mr Wright spoke with feeling of the loss the community sustained at the passing of Archie McLean, and a minute's silence was observed in his memory.

The reply to this toast was given by Mr Rogers in the place of Mr Tom Chamberlain who was unable to be present.

The toast to the ladies was given by Mr C. R. Gladden, who thanked them for the splendid supper provided.

Mrs Holt in reply spoke in appreciative terms of her connection with the W. I. Mrs Holt, a resident of Hull, England, stranded in Canada as a result of the war, is a popular member of the W. I.

The addresses were interspersed with musical items by Miss Myrtle Stoodley, Billy Frederick, and Billy Suppe, while John Mellisen gave a recitation. Mr Patrick, who is a favorite with Nightingale audiences, contributed two groups of songs in his own inimitable style. Community singing also had a place in the program.

After the tables were cleared dancing began to the tune of music supplied by Mr and Mrs Walter Mercer, Jr John Giffen, Mr Tonite, and Mr Leonard Edgar who kindly donated their services. During the break, for refreshments Mr George Thurston, Sr. sold by auction the various articles donated as follows:— Mr and Mrs Larsen, potatoes; Mrs H. Hilton, Picture and cake plate; Mrs North, ladies coat Mrs A. Mercer, box of hand-dipped chocolates; Mrs Plath, 2 jars marmalade; Mrs Jukes, 2 jars pickles; Mrs Joel, basket of tomatoes; Mrs Hendricks, cake; Mrs Stonaker, squash; Miss Gibson, 2 jars pears; Mr C. R. Gladden, 2 pure bred Rhode Island Red Cockerels; Messrs R. and P. New-all, a 90 lb. lamb; Two other cakes and a jar of beet pickles were also donated.

The lamb was knocked down to Mr George Thurston who gave it back to be resold.

Money donations were received from Mr Chris Cullen, Mr Cameron, Mrs Trollope and the Nightingale hockey club. Mr and Mrs A. A. Farr donated five dollars worth of groceries including coffee and tea.

An embroidered cloth donated by Mrs Clifford Way, was raffled and was won by Mrs John Hendricks.

Visitors from Strathmore, Rockyford, Gleichen and Standard were among the guests present; also Mr R. Nichol, Nightingale's oldest old timer who is over ninety years of age, and Mrs W. Otto a charter member of the Red Cross who received this honor during the war of 1914-18.

The gratifying sum of $174.00 was realized as a result of this community effort, which will be handed over to the Red Cross after the few expenses are deducted.

HALLOWE'EN

A year ago we appealed to the young people of Strathmore and District to refrain from senseless destruction and vandalism. The results were exceptionally gratifying and numerous citizens made commendable remarks on the behaviour of our younger generation.

Hallowe'en— when all the younger children dress up in spooky garb and parade from house to house where they are generally treated to candy, fruit, etc., and in many cases the host derives as much enjoyment out of it as the children do, in seeing the weird costumes and guessing who's who.

If this innocent form of amusement was the extent of our Hallowe'en celebration not one citizen would begrudge the small cost of the treats provided and the time spent in entertaining the young visitors.

Under present conditions every dollar available is required for War Work of some kind and any unwarranted destruction will entail the expenditure of money which would otherwise have been used in the successful prosecution of our war effort, a duty which should be uppermost in the minds of all true Canadians young and old.

Again to the younger generation we appeal not only to your sense of fair play, but also to your patriotic spirit to co-operate with us at a time when co-operation is most essential.

T. S. HUGHES,

Mayor of Strathmore.

● Two new health units for operation in Alberta have been organized increasing the total in operation to eight, officials of the provincial health department state.

● Canada's eastern Arctic white population, about 60 men and women scattered along a lonely shoreline, bought Victory Loan bonds valued at $11,500.

● The Game of Life—

All play the varied Game of Life. With chance to win or lose; The game goes on from day to day, To baffle or amuse.

Some play the game with confidence, Some paralyzed with fear; Some play with high expectancy. Some fall when victory's near.

Some play it nervously and fast, Some stack the cards to cheat; Some play to pass the time away. Some, white-faced, meet defeat.

Play on, my friend, the Game of Life, No matter how you fare; Play on, play hard, and play to win, But always play it square.

—Grenville Kleiser.

● Postal Department Makes Special Book Arrangements—

Special arrangements have been made by the Canadian Post Office Department to facilitate the sending of books to Canadian forces in camps in Canada and Newfoundland. The value attached by soldiers, sailors and airmen to a plentiful supply of books in their reading rooms, etc., has been stressed both by the men themselves and by those who have visited their camps. Good, interesting books are always in demand and it is highly important that the supply should be frequently replenished.

Honourable Wm. P. Mulock, K. C., M. P., Postmaster General announces that in the interest of our soldiers, sailors and airmen stationed in Canada and Newfoundland, and as a special measure of co-operation, all Post Offices throughout the country will act as depositing centres for Books. This applies to books only—not to magazines, newspapers, etc.

Persons who wish to supply our Forces with much appreciated reading matter now may hand in these volumes at their Post Office—the books donated should be clean and in good condition. It will not even be necessary to wrap them as they will be placed in mail bags especially provided for the purpose.

Citizens can ensure that men in camps in Canada and in Newfoundland will receive the full benefit of this privilege by going to their book shelves and picking out Books and handing them in at the Post Office, which will arrange for delivery to the various Training Camps—where they will be welcomed with interest and will relieve the monotony of the boys in Canada's Forces, especially during the Fall and Winter seasons.

The Liberal Party with Hon. A. S. MacMillan as Premier was returned Tuesday, with a majority of 16 over all.

"Personnel Selection" Staff Officers

THE NEW ARMY DIRECTORATE OF PERSONNEL SELECTION will have a large corps of psychologists and vocational advisers situated across Canada to place recruits in the service and arm where their background, training and temperament promises greatest efficiency. The above officers serve on the staff of Col. G. Brock Chisholm, M.C., M.D., the Director, at National Defence Headquarters.

Left to Right: Major James Howard, a teacher with psychological and vocational guidance experience; Capt. Wm Line, former Professor of Psychology at University of Toronto; and Lieut. J. D. Griffin, former medical director, Canadian National Committee for Mental Hygiene.

WORLD OF WHEAT

(By H. G. L. Strange)
Director—The Crop Testing Plan

The annual average exports of Canadian wheat overseas for the five years immediately prior to the outbreak of this war, was equivalent to 175 million bushels of wheat. During the two years of this war the exports have averaged 217 million bushels a year, and for the two months of August and September of this crop year, exports have been running at about the same high rate.

It will be observed from this, that while the war has cut off many markets for Canadian wheat, yet the amount of wheat which has left Canadian shores for export has actually increased substantially since the war started as compared with similar annual exports for the five years immediately prior to this war.

It is apparent, therefore, that it is not the war that is responsible for during the past 20 years by the United States, Canada and other countries. These high tariffs made it impossible for foreign people to sell in Canada enough of their goods to bring them in sufficient Canadian dollars with which to purchase those quantities of Canadian wheat which they badly needed. Canada, apparently, forgot the ancient adage "If you don't buy you can't sell."

NIGHTINGALE

By M. H.

Mr and Mrs E. M. Stoodley held a reception at their home Sunday evening October 19th in honor of their daughter and son-in-law Mr and Mrs E. E. Risdon. A sumptuous supper was served on a long table beautifully decorated with a lovely three tier wedding cake as centre piece. The evening was spent in social conversation and many laughs were enjoyed over reminiscences of early days. Among those present were Mr and Mrs Harold Risdon and Dick, Mr and Mrs Walter Risdon and children, Mr and Mrs A. Petersen and Vernon of Strathmore. Mrs Norman Bragg of Namaka, and Mr and Mrs F. H. Harriman, C. R. Gladden, Mrs Plath, and Mr Albert Gilling. The bride and groom received the usual good natured advice as well as heartiest congratulations and the very pleasant evening passed all too quickly.

Mrs Julius Ludwig came back from Calgary with her young daughter Edna Elizabeth who was in the Holy Cross Hospital.

Mr George Thurston spent a few days in Calgary at the live stock sale.

PEACE RIVER "IF"

If you can keep a smile when all about you
The pouring rains are rotting all your hay,
While grain is sprouting in the oft-drenched bundles,
And cars mire daily on the King's Highway;

If you can watch your feed bins running empty,
And find no chance to thresh a load of grain;
Can see your fallow greening as a meadow,
With weeds and grass, throughout two months of rain;

If you can wade through barnyards miring deeper,
And see the pigs convert their lots to mud;
If you can feed a crew and get no work done,
While every hope of fairing proves a dud;

If you can see the sun in broad effulgence
Shine forth as if in promise of fair days,
Then dodge behind a snowy cloud, repentant,
While snow flakes hid his weak and yellow rays;

If you can see a summer's work dissolving,
And face a winter minus feed or cash;
Can still maintain the spirit of Thanksgiving,
When every blessed prospect seems to crash;

If you can stand all this and keep your courage
And cheer a fellow farmer to the end,
Yours is the land, and everything that's on it,
And, what is more, you are a brick my friend.

NOTE—At Beaverlodge from July 1 to September 24, inclusive, precipitation was 11.08 inches, occurring on 50 days, including 22 out of 24 in September. —W. D. ALBRIGHT, in "Timely Hints."

He was fortunate enough to have some rams to sell.

Flight Lieut. and Mrs Max McDiarmid of Calgary and Mrs J. Stilborn and daughter Lillian of Fort Qu'Appelle, Sask., were week end guests of Mr and Mrs Harriman.

Last Wednesday Mrs Plath entertained in honor of Mrs E. E. Risdon at her home. Her large sunny rooms were suitably decorated with pink and white streamers. About sixty guests came, bringing with them many lovely gifts for a miscellaneous shower. On behalf of all ladies present Mrs Thurston made the presentation address, stressing the esteem which the community held for Hazel and wishing her heartiest good wishes. Mrs Hansen assisted Mrs Stoodley and the bride in unwrapping the gifts. After these were duly admired Mrs Risdon warmly thanked her friends for the good wishes and remembrances. "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow" was sung and the usual hearty cheer given. The hostess served a delicious tea. She was assisted by Doris Putnam, Milly Harriman, Doris Hillton and Myrtle Stoodley.

BLANKETS NEEDED

FOR BOMBED BRITAIN

When the Nazi aerial blitz strikes a British city, the most welcome relief to bombing sufferers is the bales of blankets and quilts sent by the Canadian people, according to advices received from the overseas branch of the Canadian Red Cross.

Since the Red Cross Society's last appeal for these useful articles, 135, 137 blankets and 101,234 quilts have been distributed to bombing victims, military hospitals and for the relief of distressed merchant seamen.

That supply is now exhausted, Red Cross officials announce, and there is an urgent need to replenish stocks so that hardships among the bombed out people of Britain may be kept to a minimum during the long winter months.

British relief authorities are loud in their praise of the Canadian people for their splendid support of the last appeal for these vital necessities, and stress the fact that the blankets and quilts have been the means of saving many lives.

Blankets must be woollen and new or as "good as new." Those unable to provide blankets or new quilts may aid the appeal by contributing $2.00 for the purchase of a single blanket.

Contributions are asked to get in touch with their provincial or local branch headquarters of the Red Cross for directions as to where the blankets, quilts and donations may be sent.

NOTE—Mr Thurston of Thurston's Drug Store has kindly offered to place a box in his store for the receiving of donations for the Red Cross, to be sent to bombed victims in Britain.

Here is a definition of a successful man and woman, as given by one of our readers who was in the other day—there is a moral to it.
"A successful man is one who can make more than his wife can spend, and a successful woman is one who can land such a man."

Doctor John (in Sunday School):
"What are heathens?"
Bright lad: "Heathens are people who don't quarrel over religion."

"Which way is the coach for the Medicine Hat train?" asked an old lady at the station one night.

"Turn to the left and you'll be right," replied D. A. facetiously.
"Don't be impertinent," she said.
"All right, madam," retorted D.A., "turn to the right and you'll be left."

Mr. MacKenzie: "Leonard, what are the two genders?"

Wheeler: "Masculine and feminine. The feminine are divided into frigid and torrid, the masculine into temperate and intemperate."

Two negroes were boasting about their cars, both typical worn, shabby, old wrecks.

One of them said: "Dey's just one reason why ah can't run dis heac cab o' mine 60 miles an hour."

"De distance am too great for de shawtness o' fide time?" ventured the first.

Spence: "Have you ever noticed how a woman lowers her voice when she asks a favor?"
Gannon: "Yes, and raises it when she doesn't get it."

Political Candidate: "Did you hear my radio broadcast last night?"
A. V. McFarland: "As a matter of fact, my radio broke down halfway through it."

P. C.: "Is that likely to happen very often?"
A. V.: "They don't guarantee it."

Ronnie Hughes: "How did you get that black eye?"

Bleasore: "I got into a fight with a pacifist."

● Definition Of Morale—

As it is understood by Brigadier-General of U. S. Army.

I'll tell you what morale is. It is when a soldier thinks his army is the best in the world, his regiment the best in the army, his company the best in the regiment, his squad the best in the company, and that he himself is the best damn soldierman in the outfit.

This definition is by the U. S. Army's morale chief, Brigadier General James A. Ullo.

"You were always a fault-finder," growled the wife.

"Yes dear," responded the husband, meekly; "I found you."

CORN

Lethbridge Experimental Station

This season has been a particularly favourable one for corn in Southern Alberta. There are a few very large fields in the district and many small ones, and wherever proper growing conditions have been provided the results obtained have been better than what should be expected in average seasons. All varieties of corn in the tests on dry land at the Station made better growth than they have done for many seasons.

During the last decade the growing of corn for ensilage purposes has almost ceased in this district, but the growing of early ripening varieties for grain purposes has increased greatly.

In order to obtain greater yields of ensilage or better maturity of grain, farmers have realized the importance of earlier seeding of corn. In most seasons in the Lethbridge district corn can be sown safely as early as the first week in May. It is rather surprising, however, to learn each spring of a number of farmers being disappointed on account of using seed corn which has not been tested for germination. It should be remembered that corn for seed purposes requires careful storing, and that satisfactory seed corn can seldom, if ever, be obtained

The help of every Canadian is needed for Victory. In these days of war the thoughtless, selfish spender is a traitor to our war effort. A reduction in personal spending is now a vital necessity to relieve the pressure for goods, to enable more and more labour and materials to be diverted to winning the war. The all-out effort, which Canada must make, demands this self-denial of each of us.

WAR SAVINGS CAMPAIGN

EVERY thinking person realizes the seriousness of the war at the present. Everyone knows that it takes money to build ships, airplanes and tanks. It takes money to equip men for the navy, land and air forces. There is no argument, and only one thing to do, give—and give generously to the canvasser who calls, on your next week.

You may not be able to fire a gun or drop bombs but you can and must give the money that provides this equipment—if you would preserve your freedom, and save your country for this and future generations.

ADULT EDUCATION

CHANGES are taking place in our Educational System, and the method of instructing the young. It is well that parents and all interested in the development of our youth should keep in touch with these very striking changes. For instance—the “phone system” in which in our school days, we set such faith—is now utterly discarded.

A child now, is not taught to write until he reaches grade III. And again in our day Mothers would tell with great pride that Jimmy knew his letters—could write simple words and could count up to—. Geography as we knew it, has been passed up by the Board of Education.

It is a changing world. In some cases we question the benefit of the change. However the change has been brought about and it is up to every thinking man and woman to keep reasonably in touch.

Certainly the newer method makes of the thinking pupil, a more reasoning personality.

The onus placed on the teacher is greater if he or she fulfills his responsibility, which is a very great one.

CHALLENGES TEACHERS TO BECOME EVANGELISTS FOR DEMOCRATIC CAUSE

Dr H. C. Newland, Alberta Supervisor of schools told the annual convention of teachers at the Edmonton convention held recently,—

“We could do with less knowledge of Latin and mathematics, and a little more sociology, psychology and economics,” he said.

Need Social Studies—

“I can see the time coming when social studies will occupy one-third of the whole school program.”

Dr Newland contended that a human being is “something produced by the culture in which he is born” and “if you want a democratic being you must have a democratic culture.” This culture could not be produced by preaching alone.

Speaking of the course of studies, now taught in Alberta schools, the schools supervisor said “we haven’t a final course of studies yet.”

It was not the type of education in which “somebody knows all the answers.”

Nothing is Fixed—

“Nothing fixed, final authoritative—that should be the spirit of education in a democracy,” he added.

Labor Minister McLarty And New Order For Wages COVERAGE

THE order is applicable to the following employers;

- (a) Every employer normally subject to the Industrial Disputes Investigation Act;
- (b) Every employer engaged in the manufacture of munitions of war, or war supplies, or the construction of defence projects;
- (c) Every building trades employer with 10 or more employees;
- (d) Every other private employer with 50 or more employees.

The order does not apply to employers in agriculture or fishing, of to hospitals, religious, charitable or educational associations operated on a non-profit basis.

There will be a National War Labor Board set up, aided by one regional board for each of the nine provinces, with a provincial minister of labor, and one or more representatives of employers and employees.

Dominion Government To Meet November 3rd

There will be no opening formalities. No Speech from the Throne.

There may be debates dealing with war-time restrictions, with curtailment of luxury buying, and with the persistent question of conscription. There can be little doubt that this will be the “hottest” wartime session so far staged. The main leaders have toured Canada and Britain. Statements will be challenged. Division of opinion will be counterweighted by pronouncements of those of minor parties. But there is one matter upon which all parties should agree, and that is that the time has arrived for an “all-out” in national saving.

So far as conscription is concerned, if the matter breaks out in full parliamentary debate, there will be embarrassment for the government and possible threats of resignation. There is division of opinion within the Cabinet

Red Cross—

The regular monthly meeting of the Red Cross was held at the school on Tuesday, October 21st. There was every good attendance and everybody seemed enthusiastic about the work. Plans were discussed for raising and it was decided to hold an auction sale on Saturday, November 15. The idea was that people might have something lying around that might be desired by somebody else and a committee was appointed to arrange for the collection of these and also for the appointment of an auctioneer. Wednesday afternoon, October 22nd a Red Cross Tea was held at Mrs Standly's home when the various articles which have been made for the Red Cross were on display. Mrs Clegg and Mrs Darlow poured tea and there was quite a crowd present. Eleven dollars was the amount contributed by way of a silver collection. The next regular meeting of the Red Cross will be on Tuesday, November 11th. Remembrance Day, at 8 p.m.

A pleasant surprise party was held at the home of Mrs Miller on Wednesday, October 15th, the occasion being her eightieth birthday. About fourteen of the ladies gathered and brought gifts and greetings. Mrs Olstrum brought a lovely cake for the occasion and everybody had a happy time. Birthday gifts for Mrs Miller included a basket of flowers and fruit from the girls of the Mission Band. The community extends congratulations and best wishes to Mrs Miller on reaching her 80th birthday. Chicken pie will be served at the Ladies Aid Annual Supper to be held on November 5th and the programme following will include moving pictures by Mr McMurray of Strathmore.

A Trail Ranger Group was recently organized here among the boys, with Mr F. Worger, Principal, as mentor.

on this question and no matter how lustily they “beat their breasts” and proclaim their loyalty to their chief, some of them cannot suppress the fact that officers in the services have come out publicly for conscription. Interesting in this connection is that the Canadian Legion has called an extraordinary Council meeting to demand conscription, “regardless of race, creed or geographic origin, for total war effort.”

WHEATLAND S. D. HOLD MEETING

The regular monthly meeting of Board of the Wheatland School Division No. 40 was held on Monday, October 27th.

The date for closing schools in the Division for the Christmas holiday was set for Tuesday, December 23rd, and they will re-open for the June Term on Monday, January 5th, 1942.

It was decided that all school Christmas concerts this year must be held on Tuesday, December 23rd, either in the afternoon or evening, so that regular school work will be interfered with as little as possible.

Supt. Mr. Munroe MacLeod gave a report of the Teachers Institutes held in each sub-division during the second week of school. All teachers in the Division attended one of these meetings where a free discussion of educational problems took place. Mr. MacLeod stated that the meetings were a decided success and the new

Making German Prisoners
Comfortable

To the Editor of The Globe and Mail.— The people of this Province accept with consternation Premier Hepburn's announcement that a Bowmanville school is being turned over to a group of German officer prisoners of war. In this vast Dominion of ours no place available further away from our air force permanent headquarters at Trenton? To say the least, it seems strange that these German officers, men of resource and intelligence, should be housed in so convenient a spot in Southern Ontario, in the very midst of countless army and air force training centres.

But stranger still is the queer logic which sees any reason why Canadian children should be evicted from this building to make room for these men, in order that they may live more in the regal style to which their sensitive (?) persons have been accustomed. Going on the democratic premise that all men are born equal—and as a democracy that is one of things we are taught to believe— why should officers, German or British, have better quarters or better food than the

● Facts About Cancer—

A lump in the breast is a danger signal, a warning to that person to seek medical advice. Not that a lump in the breast means that it is cancer.
 It is probably not, but it is also true that a certain number are and many more may become cancerous if neglected for any length of time.

Don't try to massage it away or use somebody's "wonder oil" on it. You are only spreading it and making it more difficult for later treatment.

Don't be ashamed of it. Don't try to hide it or forget about it. SEE A DOCTOR AT ONCE. Let nothing delay
 you because the delay is dangerous.
 Thousands of lives would be saved every year if it were not for the delay. Don't wait for pain to occur with the idea that if it isn't painful it cannot be cancer. Unfortunately, EARLY CANCER IS NOT PAINFUL.

● Doubt as to the worth of the new federal orders in the program of price-fixing and bonussing was voiced by Hon. D. Bruce MacMillan, minister of agriculture this week. Mr. Mac-Millan said that if eastern farmers are to receive financial assistance worth $50,000,000 and western farmers assistance worth only $15,000,000, then some explanation would be necessary. Naturally the farmers of Alberta will be interested in the freight assistance policy rendered to eastern farmers and its effect upon the price, demand and disposition of feed and live stock in Alberta.

Government members of the Legislature, sitting in caucus, declared acceptance of the federal government's tax transfer plan must be under protest. They also deplored the action of the Dominion in creating a situation which compels the province to accept the proposed agreement.

● Taxes—

The taxation transfer entails surrender by the province of a long list of tax sources, including personal income taxes, corporation income taxes, corporation taxes on banks, electric and power companies, express, finance, gas, grain, insurance, investment, land, loan, pipe line, telegraph and trust companies, as well as miscellaneous companies not classified.
 The province would also be required to prevent any municipality from imposing income or corporation taxes.
 The caucus resolved that "the proposed agreements constitute a flagrant violation of the rights of the province and involve centralization of power,

the very principle we are now combating in the present European struggle!"

● Dr Hawk Praises Alberta
Educational System—

Praise for Alberta's educational system was given by Dr Raymond F.
 Hawk, director of research of the Eastern Washington College of Education, at a Rotary meeting in Edmonton. Dr Hawk was in the city to address the convention of teachers.
 "Three of the main parts of your system are definitely an asset," he declared. "If the best points of yours and ours were combined it would without doubt be the best system anywhere". Alberta led in supervision, the definite philosophy of the system,
 and the fine teachers' organization,
 he said.

● Premier Aberhart, Hon. E. C. Manning and several New Democracy members of Parliament left for Winnipeg at the week end to attend a national monetary reform convention.
 The convention is said to be called in response to requests from across Canada by groups and individuals who wish to organize on a national footing
 for reformed finance in war and peace.

BANG, BANG!

A clever bit of debunking was done by Richard Needham in a recent issue of the Calgary Herald. Like many another piece by this clever columnist, it is worthy of reproduction.
 Alberta farmers is particular should get a good laugh out of it. Here it is—Reading The Financial Post, we found a pretty strong little editorial about the co-operative movement. It said the co-ops were planning "to destroy our present economic system and our present democratic form of government." The editorial described the co-op movement as "a revolution that may destroy our present way of life in Canada."

We need hardly say that this revelation has shaken us to the core.
 Walking by the Loughheed Building the other day, we saw George Bennett of the Wheat Pool standing on the sidewalk, filling his pipe. No doubt (we thought with a delicious shudder) he has just come from an underground cellar where plans were formulated to blow up the Bank of Montreal. We noticed a U.F.A. leader walking nervously down the street the same day: one hand in his pocket, clutching what we assumed to be a hand grenade. Sometimes, in the morning, we see the Co-op milkman on his rounds; we suppose he and his horse are waiting patiently for the day when the bankers will be stuffed into milk cans and thrown over a cliff.

From now on (thank God for the Post!) we shall view every Pool elevator with proper suspicion. Oh, yes, they look like elevators, folks, but that is all camouflage. Strip away the wood and you'll see that every one of them is an enormous field gun, with its sights trained on the Bank of Commerce Building in Toronto. Bang, Bang

THE WARTIME PRICES
AND TRADE BOARD

Ottawa, Canada— Applications for licence under the nation-wide plan to license all manufacturers and dealers in food, feeds, livestock, poultry, yarn, cloth, clothing, and footwear have already started to pour into the Licensing Records Division of the Dominion Bureau of Statistics at Ottawa, according to a statement issued today by the Wartime Prices and Trade Board.

More than 300,000 licence application forms are being distributed to persons and firms affected by the licensing order through the co-operation of the thirteen thousand Canadian post offices and their mail carriers, municipal and rural. There is no licence fee.

Although these application forms
 only went into the mail on the weekend, several hundred were back into the Board's licensing division Monday afternoon.

"It would appear that businessmen generally are complying with the Board's request to get licences promptly," commented Director of Licensing C. R. Morphy. "While the deadline for securing a licence is December 1,
 it would be wise for licensees to apply as quickly as possible as no unlicensed person who is named in the order, can buy for resale, handle or sell any of the listed goods after that date."

"Anyone who doesn't receive a licence application form through the mail, and who is subject to the order, should ask for an application at his nearest post office", Mr Morphy concluded.

WORLD'S WEEK

BY HAROLD L. WEIR

Associate Editor and Daily Columnist of the Edmonton Bulletin

The thorny question of renewed Franco-German collaboration appears to have struck an early snag in Chief of State Marshal Henri Philippe Pétain's refusal to agree to important new Nazi demands.

Vichy showed an inclination to pick up "collaboration" following German announced advances in Russia which made a deep impression on many of the easily convinced leaders of the new France. The Nazis took immediate advantage of the situation and said that Vichy must make a token move as evidence of good faith in future dealings.

All they asked was the removal of Gen. Weygand as commander of French north African forces and perhaps his appointment to some distant, unimportant post.

The demand, foreshadowed for some time in Vichy, carried considerable concern there. Few doubt that it was but a forerunner of insistence on additional concessions although for the moment the Nazis are not asking further north African facilities, which Pétain strongly opposes.

The disappearance of Gen. Weygand as an active leader would remove aside from the Marshal himself, the last major uncertain factor in French reactions to German plans. The demand was presented to Adm'l Darlan in Paris the middle of last week almost in the form of an ultimatum although it carried no specified time limit. In event of refusal, the Nazis declared, they would reconsider the "armistice terms."

Aside from its strategic importance, the North Africa problem has another important aspect. Many feel that the question of Franco-American relationships hinges on Vichy's course. Concessions would provoke a rupture with the United States—a condition the Nazis have been trying for months to achieve.

The fate of French North Africa is one of the most vital phases of the entire policy of collaboration. Vichy has resisted—formally, at any rate, but each new German setback has been followed by altered demands, usually for French concessions, although on a reduced scale.

It may now be disclosed that on May 28 the collaborationists supported by Adm'l Darlan reached an agreement with the Nazis for turning over the important naval base of Bizerta and holding out promises of a similar surrender of Casablanca in the near future.

In return, the French were offered certain relatively small concessions regarding the demarcation line and other internal relationships. The agreement was to have been implemented on July 15 but Marshal Pétain refused to initial it, using as technical grounds the alleged Nazis' failure to honor their end of the bargain. Adm'l Darlan himself is reported to be chagrined by the German double-dealing and to be less trusting now of their promises.

The Dutch East Indies are ready to play an energetic part in opposing any new Japanese aggression that will be opposed by the United States, according to trustworthy information obtained on the spot by your correspondent.

Vice-Adm'l Helfrich, commander of the Dutch naval forces, and Lt. Gen. H. Ter Poorten, acting army commander, are both confident that the Netherlands East Indies will prove to be a powerful stronghold in the American-British-Chinese-Dutch front, a front which they believe is strong enough to checkmate Japanese designs.

Both of these offensive minded officers stress their intention of defending the Dutch Indies under any and all circumstances.

The Japanese armed forces in Indo-China number two divisions, or something over 30,000 men, supplemented by 50,000 more together with transport ships ready at Hainan Island.

Chinese sources insist that the Japanese, along the Indo-China railway from Lankai to Hanoi, are building shelters for several more divisions.

The steady advance of German armies in Russia intensified debate in the United States and Britain as to why the British do not attempt a new invasion of the continent as a means of relieving Russia of German pressure.

Both official and private advices strongly indicate that the British have thoroughly canvassed the possibilities and so seriously doubt their ability to make a successful invasion of Norway, France, or Italy at this moment, that they have no intention of making such an attempt.

In the opinion of American as well as British military experts the British do not have sufficient trained men and adequate material to stage a successful invasion in the west this autumn.

An unsuccessful attempt at invasion would have disastrous consequences for Great Britain itself and for the anti-Axis cause among the conquered peoples that it would be a foolish undertaking.

It is possible, of course, that Winston Churchill may find the clamor for a diversion so potent as to compel an attempt at invasion in the west despite its obvious risks but there were no such indications this week.

To this commentator, it appears to be much more likely that the British will throw such military strength as they can give Russia into the Caucasus in an attempt to keep the Germans out of the oil fields which are their primary objective in the present campaign.

If Hitler, can get the oil out of the Caucasus and Iran he will be in a position to wage war indefinitely and the chances of successful resistance by Great Britain and the United States will be drastically reduced.

The Germans calculate that they can rehabilitate the Caucasian oil fields to at least 50 percent capacity within six months regardless of damage done by the Russians.

Without that oil, Russian resistance would be but a shadow of its present strength. Stalin, the British and the United States thus have a common interest in fending off German attack regardless of the cost.

A month ago the London correspondent of the Daily News revealed that the British had 800,000 men and a large quantity if war material in the middle east which suggested might be designed for for a determined Russo-British stand in the Caucasus. Recently the Cairo correspondent of the Daily News said Russian forces in the Caucasus would be backed by an army of 1,000,000 Indians headed by Gen. Sir Archibald Wavell, plus a separate air force.

He reported that a steady stream of trucks and equipment is moving northward from the port of Basra.

The Iranian railway which was capable of hauling only about 160 tons a day apparently is being improved by means of British and American locomotives and rolling stock. The British-Russian order to Afghanistan to expel German agents is reminiscent of the measures taken prior to British-Russian occupation of Iran and may be a prelude to the development of a second route for provisioning the forces fighting in Russia.

The war obviously will go on regardless of developments on the Moscow front. It may embrace a wider territory before long.

SUCCESSFUL BANQUET

Interesting Program

The Annual Chicken Supper arranged by the Ladies Aid of United Church and held Thursday last in the church basement was a gratifying success.

A bountiful and appetizing supper was served to the numbers who came, the long tables looking very attractive.

Mrs Lounsbury, President of the Aid was convener in chief and she was ably assisted by all members of the Ladies Aid and a large number of younger ladies who made efficient servitors.

Mrs Lounsbury wishes to thank all who helped in any way towards the success of the supper.

Following the supper a very interesting and varied program was given.

Several songs very well rendered by Mrs Campbell, accompanied by Miss Emily Cragg of Calgary, in which the accompanist shared honors with the soloist, both receiving the warm appreciation of the audience. Miss Cragg also very cleverly recited several selections, the audience requesting more and more.

A recitation by Lois White, a well rendered duet by Miss Georgia Chapman and her brother Blaine, and a difficult solo played by Miss Chapman, demonstrated Georgia's increasing ability. She was warmly applauded.

An amusing "Lesson in Singing" was cleverly demonstrated by the choir.

Several reels of very pretty and interesting pictures taken by Mr. McMurray and put on the screen by Anson Chase, held the attention of the audience throughout. There were some beautiful pictures of the flowers in their gorgeous colorings at the local C. P. R. Headquarters, prize stock, beautifully groomed, clean pigs that belied the statement—"as dirty as a pig." Modern farm equipment, scenes on the High Seas, Palatial Hotels in the Maritimes, etc., etc., all of which add their quota towards developing an esthetic appreciation for the beautiful in nature.

Rev. Hunt was chairman and expressed to all who assisted in any way, hearty thanks.

Something over $75.00 was realized.
